S.R.O. 286.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of recovery of tax on trades, professions and callings in the Cannanore Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Cannanore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (3) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. The Executive Officer may, by notice in writing, require any employer or the head or secretary or manager or managing director of any public or private concern or office, hotel, boarding house or club or a firm or company or association to,—

- (a) furnish, within fourteen days of the receipt of such notice, the names of all persons employed by such employer, or in such concern, office, hotel, boarding house, club, firm, company or association, as servants dubashis, agents, suppliers or contractors together with a statement showing the amount of salary and other allowances paid to every such person;
- (b) furnish such particulars as may be specified in the notice in regard to any company registered under the Indian Companies Act, 1913, or incorporated under any law for the time being in force, of which such employer, secretary, manager or managing director, as the case may be, is the agent.

2. The Executive Officer may classify all persons liable to pay tax on professions, trades and callings under these bye-laws but not in receipt of a fixed salary or allowances, on considerations based on the nature and reputed values of their business, the size and rental of the residential and business premises held by them, the quantity of articles handled and the number of persons employed by them and the income tax paid to Government.

3. It will be open to any person to produce his accounts and other papers before the Executive Officer with a view to satisfying him that the income derived by such person from the exercise of his profession, trade or calling within the Cantonment falls below the limit of income at which it has been assessed by the Executive Officer and if the Executive Officer is satisfied that the person should be placed in a different income group, the assessment shall be revised accordingly.

4. From the information obtained by the Executive Officer under section 103 of the Cantonments Act, 1924, or otherwise, or under these bye-laws, the Executive Officer shall cause to be prepared a Demand and Collection Register in which the names of all persons liable to pay the tax shall be entered.

5. The receipt in form 'Cantonment 4-B' set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed granted to any person by the Board in token of his having paid the tax shall be carefully preserved by such person and he shall produce it for inspection at all reasonable hours during the day when called upon so to do by the Executive Officer or by any other officer or servant of the Board authorised by the Executive Officer in this behalf.

6. If any person, when called upon under the bye-laws to furnish information neglects to furnish it or furnishes information which is not true to the best of his knowledge or belief, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
